FAIR PLANT TO BE READY FOR SHOWING IN EARLY OCTOBER

RUNNING WELL AHEAD OF SCHEDULE CONSTRUCTION IS BEING RUSHED

With work on the third permanent unit running approximately two weeks ahead of schedule, officials of the Corsicana Livestock and Agricultural Show reported there was no visible hitch Thursday in their preparations for the first showing in the new plant on Highway 31 a short distance east of the city limits.

Officials estimated the plant to be formally inaugurated for the 1938 showing on October 5-8 would represent an investment of $35,000 and that the completed work would be valued at $50,000.

Contracted work of the first two units has been completed with the exception of the installation of a subfloor in one structure. The agricultural building measures 80 by 150 feet and is constructed of heavy treated timbers and sheet iron. A contract will be let in the near future for a subfloor in the structure, and the work is expected to be completed in ample time for the fall show. At some future date, association officials plan to install a hardwood floor in this unit and make it suitable for all kinds of county and community meetings and entertainments.

Livestock Building

The livestock building is located immediately south of the first exhibit building and measures 68 by 208 feet, and is of similar construction. Accommodations will be available for more than 180 head of approximately 500,000 and will make the Corsicana plant one of the most modern in the central portion of the state and equal to any of the smaller fair plant sites.

The two units, with the subfloor necessary lighting and grounds, represent an investment of approximately $20,000 and will make the Corsicana plant one of the most modern in the central portion of the state and equal to any of the smaller fair plant sites.

Rodeo Arena

Work has been started and is progressing rapidly on the $15,000 rodeo and horse show arena and stands which will have a capacity of 500 around 500,000. Lighting standards have been set and many of the heavier timbers have been set and preparations made to rush the unit to completion some days in advance of the first exhibition dates. The arena, 120 by 250 feet and will be the equal of any similar structure in the southwest. A large number

LOYALIST TROOPS HOLDING AGAINST INSURGENT ATTACK

HENDAYE, France — (At the Spanish Frontier)—Aug. 25.—(AP)—Government dispatches reported today that the Ebro front in South Catalonia was holding firm against diminishing fury of insurgent attacks. Although the government troops admitted the insurgents carried some advance posts by storm, they insisted actual battle lines were changed little since they were established a month ago. On the Tarragona front, about 90 miles southwest of Madrid, the insurgent offensive also came to a near halt in front of government defense lines. Farther to the south, on the Extremadura front, the government reported its troops had straightened their lines along the Zujar river, forcing insurgents from several front line positions.

HAMILTON REPLIES TO CHARGE OF REPUBLICANS TAKING PART STATE DEMOCRATIC PRIMARIES

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25.—(AP)—Republican Chairman John Hamilton contends that President Roosevelt "must have had his tongue in cheek" when he criticized republican participation in democratic primaries. Issuing a statement shortly after two democratic senators, Brown of Michigan and Sheppard of Texas, had expressed agreement with the President's comment, Hamilton said last night: "Taken seriously, Mr. Roosevelt's remarks constitute an indictment of the election laws of a number of sovereign states. If republicans have or intend to participate in democratic primaries—and there is no conclusive proof that they have or so intend—it has been and will be in accordance with the provisions of state laws. "Does Mr. Roosevelt now propose to sponsor some kind of federal 'force' law to compel the

FIRST TWO PERMANENT UNITS OF FAIR PLANT

Officials of the Corsicana Livestock and Agricultural Show are highly elated over the progress of the permanent plant located on highway 31 a short distance east of the city. The first structures are shown above with the agricultural building in the right foreground, and the livestock building appearing immediately behind it. With the necessary lighting equipment and grounds, the two units cost approximately $17,500 and a contract will be let in the near future for a subfloor in the agricultural building which will run the completed cost of the two structures to $20,000. Work on the rodeo arena and stands was reported running well ahead of schedule and the $15,000 structure will be ready in ample time for the fall show slated on Oct. 5-8.

SUN-LIGHT PAPERS ANNOUNCE RESULTS ELECTION SATURDAY

TOTALS WILL BE FLASHED ON SCREEN AND GIVEN OVER LOUDSPEAKER

Last-minute activities of candidates and their supporters in Navarro county assure a big vote in the forty-eight precincts in the run-off democratic primary election Saturday. The Corsicana Daily Sun and Semi-Weekly Morning Light, Associated Press papers, will compile and tabulate complete returns from the run-off election Saturday night. All presiding judges of the election have been urged to telephone (Collect) The Daily Sun and Semi-Weekly Morning Light for the results of their respective precincts. The complete vote is available. It will be impossible to tabulate complete returns unless the entire forty-eight precincts are reported.

To Announce Results. The results will be announced over a loud-speaker arrangement and will be flashed on a screen across the street from the newspaper building. The street will be roped off and all interested citizens will be invited to attend the election party. A specially-leased Texas Election Bureau wire will bring the returns from the state races and this service will be augmented by bulletins and flash over The Associated Press wire. The co-operation of the public is respectfully sought election night by not telephoning the Daily Sun and Semi-Weekly Morning Light or the battery of telephones in the Sun building will be utilized to bring in the returns from the voting precinct officials and the information about the election will not be given over the telephone.

Much Interest.

Interest is heightened in the election by the actions and addresses of W. Lee O'Daniel, winner of the gubernatorial nomination in the first primary election, endorsing the candidates of six aspirants to state offices in the run-off campaign. When the governor nominee first came out with his state race, there was a decided wave of jubilation and enthusiasm, especially among his more rabid supporters in this immediate section, but week following his address, his wishes will be adhered to by many of his supporters and followers who previously had maintained that they would oppose all suggested administration choices.

Absentee Ballots.

There were 478 absentee ballots cast in the county clerk's office prior to the expiration of the deadline.

Big Texas Steer Goes On Rampage At Indianapolis

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 25.—(AP)—A big Texas steer, yearning for the open range, dived from a seventh story window of a packing house into the White river. The steer swam the river, trotted through town and put on several impromptu mill fights with bystanders who played cowboy and gave chase. Finally two policemen shot and killed the animal.

GREATEST POST-WAR MILITARY DISPLAY BY NAZI GERMANY

ADMIRAL HORTHY, HUNGARIAN REGENT, ASSURED OF INTEGRITY

BERLIN, Aug. 25.—(AP)—Nazi Germany followed up a guarantee of the integrity of Hungarian frontiers today with its greatest post-war military display before Admiral Nicholas Horthy, regent of Hungary. In an exchange of toasts at a sumptuous state dinner last night, Chancellor Adolf Hitler as a "friend and neighbor" promised the Hungarian ruler that "we as neighbors have found in Hungary a friend and ally. We will not permit the boundaries through historic events (German annexation of Austria on March 13)." Admiral Horthy replied: "The wish for continuation of peaceful reconstruction which animates us and our friends is a guarantee that our people can pursue successfully the high aim of peace based on mutual good will and justice through further close collaboration, thereby serving best their own interests and those of the rest of the world."

Long before dawn 16,000 troops in uniform, steel-helmeted dragoon regiments and four friends in the parade march before Premier Benito Mussolini of Italy on his visit Sept. 25-29, 1937, began concentrating in Berlin for the goose-step parade in honor of Horthy and the Hungarian officials accompanying him.

FARM LEADERS OF ADMINISTRATION SEE FIGHT IN CONGRESS

EXPECT EFFORT TO SUP-PLANT EVER-NORMAL GRANARY PROGRAM

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25.—(AP)—Administration farm leaders expect a major fight in the next congress over a proposal to replace the "ever-normal granary" crop control law with domestic allotment and price-fixing regulations. Declining farm prices and accumulating crop surpluses have stimulated agitation for revision of the 1938 farm act among cotton and wheat growers. Secretary Wallace has indicated, however, he will carry his defense of the present law to the farmers before congress convenes. The proposed domestic allotment program, which had strong support in the last congress, would eliminate the present acreage allotment, marketing control and benefit payment provisions. Farmers would be free to produce as much as they desired, but could sell only a specified share, or allotment, of the domestic market. For example, if domestic needs were estimated at 650,000,000 bushels of wheat, that amount would be prorated among the growers. The buyer would be required to pay a price fixed by

HEALTH OFFICIALS URGE PRECAUTIONS TO COMBAT DISEASE

PREVENTATIVE MEASURES AGAINST TYPHOID AND DIPHTHERIA SUGGESTED

Preventative measures against typhoid, fever and diphtheria were urged Thursday in a joint statement issued by Drs. S. H. Burnett and W. T. Shell, Jr., county and city health officials. The self-explanatory statement follows: In view of the fact that there are now a few more cases than usual of diphtheria and typhoid fever in the county and that all schools will begin soon, we think it advisable to advise the citizens of the county and cities of this fact in order that precautions be taken to prevent a general epidemic of the above mentioned diseases, and not interfere with the schools in general and the children's individual school activities. We wish to state also, that the state of Texas will furnish the county and city health officers sufficient preventive vaccines or toxoids for those who cannot obtain same through their local drug stores. The state, county, or city does not furnish diphtheria anti-toxin for treatment, nor diphtheria antitoxin for prevention. They do furnish diphtheria antitoxin for treatment for three or four weeks only, whereas the toxoid protects for several years, but does not take effect for some four or five weeks following administration of same.

The health officers suggest that all have the toxoid administered in the summer months, before school, also advise that, if typhoid vaccine has not been taken in the last two years, another series of typhoid vaccine should be taken. Your family physician can explain to you more in detail and if you desire to take advantage of either, have him get in touch with the county health officer if you live outside a city limit. If you live inside a city limit, get in touch with the city health officer of the city in which you live.

There is no general epidemic of either typhoid or diphtheria now but if some precautions are not taken we may expect quite a number more cases of either, and possibly a general epidemic. In order that this information be afforded to the people, the county health officers and officials might take this under consideration and act as they think best in the matter.

S. H. BURNETT, County Health Officer. W. T. SHELL, JR., City Health Officer.

THREE FEDERAL AGENCIES ARE OFFERING EVIDENCE BUSINESS IS SHOWING AN IMPROVEMENT

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25.—(AP)—Three federal agencies offered today statistical evidence of substantial business improvement in recent weeks. The federal reserve board calculated that the upswing in steel, textiles, petroleum, shoe and other industries had won back in the last seven weeks all the ground lost in the previous seven months. At the treasury, a 25 per cent spurt in customs collections indicated to officials that conditions had improved to the point where purchases of foreign raw materials and other merchandise were being made. The commerce department reported the first favorable turn in its index of national income in nearly a year. July income declined less than the usual seasonal amount, and the nation's

WEINBERG SEVERLY GRILLED BY DEFENSE COUNSEL THURSDAY

FORMER SCHULTZ RACKET BUSINESS MANAGER REMAINS UNRUFFLED

By E. C. DANIEL. NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—(AP)—With a slight grin, George Weinberg, 36, ex-gangster testifying for the state in the conspiracy trial of Tammany District Leader James J. Hines, acknowledged under cross-examination today that he was "not a very good perjurer."

Through a barrage of questions by Hines' chief defense counsel, Lloyd Paul Stryker, Weinberg denied that he had "cooked up" his story of a politico-racketeer combine in pre-trial conversations with "Big Larry" Schuchman and J. Richard "Dickie" Davis, the "kid mouthpiece" of the multi-million dollar Dutch Schultz policy racket. The witness, a thin-faced, sharp-eyed former lieutenant of the slain gangster, Schultz, denied that he had committed perjury in the current trial but blandly admitted that he had perjured himself 17 years ago when he was convicted of burglary conspiracy charges.

Weinberg denied that he had stolen $300,000 from the Schultz "policy empire." "What happened to that money?" asked Stryker, referring to one $300,000 item. "Well, Schultz," Weinberg began. "You stole it, Weinberg, didn't you?" Stryker rasped. "You stole it, didn't you?" "No," Weinberg replied calmly. "I did not."

Weinberg maintained his Sphinx-like pose in the face of Stryker's shouted barrage of questions, which drew repeated See RACKET TRIAL, Page 13.

CORRIGAN IS GIVEN OFFICIAL WELCOME AT TEXAS CAPITAL

HAD PREVIOUSLY BEEN GIVEN ENTHUSIASTIC GREETING IN LUFKIN

AUSTIN, Aug. 25.—(AP)—Smiling Douglas Corrigan was officially welcomed here today by Governor James V. Allred as Texas Own. At the end of a parade through the business section of the capital, over a route lined by cheering thousands, Governor Allred extended the state's official greeting to the diminutive flier, made him a colonel on his personal staff and gave him the traditional ten-gallon hat.

The governor told the crowds, in presenting Corrigan, that the man who made the famous "wrong way" flight to Ireland was born in Galveston and that Texas was glad to have him back again. "He is Texas' own," Governor Allred said.

The governor said Corrigan seemed not to have "lost the common touch" but apparently enjoyed "meeting common folks like us as much as we enjoy meeting him." "We love you a little more than the rest of the country," he said, "because you are our own."

The crowd, which extended for blocks, cheered as Governor Allred presented Corrigan as "Colonel Corrigan." Then it roared again as Corrigan donned the big hat.

In making your own flights, the governor said, "if you should have to settle down on one and your plane should spring a leak, you could bail out water 10 gallons at a time with this hat."

Corrigan's first words to the crowd were: "Looks like it might take a little while to get used to this."

TWO CONGRESSIONAL RACES FEATURES IN SATURDAY PRIMARY

CANDIDATES FOR STATE OFFICES ARE WINDING UP THEIR SCHEDULES

By The Associated Press. Sharing the limelight with state offices at stake in the forth-coming run-off primary Saturday were two congressional races where candidates were heatedly bidding for votes.

Particularly acrid was the Northwest Texas contest between the incumbent Rep. W. D. McFarlane of Graham and Ed Gossett, Wichita Falls attorney, in which hot words have been shouted from platforms in 15 counties. While there has been no new deal issue, Gossett at Seymour last night took cognizance of McFarlane's designation as "my friend" by President Roosevelt in July when he said he would "not attempt to ride into any office on anybody's coat-tails." He also said he believed the President was a great man, with high ideals.

Both candidates were bidding strongly for the farm and labor vote in the 13th district. McFarlane planned to finish his drive with a rally at Wichita Falls Thursday night, and Gossett will close Friday night.

Brady Lindsey Gentry of Tyler and young Lindley Brockworth of Gilmer were conducting "home county" campaigns to fill the seat left vacant by the defeat of Rep. Morgan Sanders of Canton, veteran member of the house who was destined for chairmanship of the key ways and means committee. Both New Dealers.

Both have spoken their complete support of the new deal and have urged sweeping reforms in social security legislation, especially old age pensions. Both have offered remedies for farm ills, and the present federal farm program. Observers believe Brockworth's main strength lay in the counties he represented in the state legislature—Upshur and Camp, while Gentry was especially strong in Van Zandt county, where he was born, and Smith county, where he was raised.

PENNSYLVANIA'S PRISON PROBES TO 'TURN ON THE HEAT'

WILL ENTER STUFFY CELLS WHERE FOUR CONVICTS DIED FROM ROASTING

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 25.—(AP)—Arrest of at least eight persons in the "baking" of the prison of four convicts who led a hunger strike at the Philadelphia county prison was predicted today by Coroner Charles A. Hinch.

He said the investigation he is conducting with District Attorney John A. Boyle indicated that at least that many would be employed in the prison or men in steam-heated, almost airtight punishment cells.

Dr. Hirsch did not indicate whether the investigation involved employees of the prison or officials. Two guards already have been held as material witnesses.

State prison investigators said they planned to "turn on the heat" and enter the stuffy cells to learn whether the punishment cell black was "a deliberately planned roaster."

Charles I. Engard, secretary of welfare directing the state's investigation of the deaths in the Philadelphia county prison Monday, disclosed that men from his department and state policemen would make the test. Same Conditions. He said they would subject themselves to the same conditions the prisoners faced in the heated cells termed as horrible as the black hole of Calcutta. "They plan to close the windows and ventilators," he said, "just as we understand they were closed Sunday night, and have the steam pressure in the radiators turned on to the same degree they were when the prisoners were died there."

EXAMPLES SET BY JESUS CHRIST ARE CITED FOR ACTION

NOMINEE FOR GOVERNOR AGAIN DEFENDS CHOICES FOR OFFICES

FORT WORTH, Aug. 25.—(AP)—Examples set by Jesus Christ, the United States government and former Governor James Stephen Hogg were cited by W. Lee O'Daniel today as precedents for his endorsement of a slate of candidates for state offices.

The examples were stressed in a radio speech in which the gubernatorial nominee mentioned his favored candidates by name for the first time since his famous endorsement speech of two weeks ago.

O'Daniel also repeated the portion of his endorsement speech relating to two judges, pointing out that he had not claimed they could help him carrying out his legislative program.

Again emphasizing his belief that people should vote as their conscience dictates, O'Daniel appealed for a heavy vote in the Saturday primary.

He used results of the July primary as certified by the state democratic executive committee to indicate his conviction that thousands of voters had no preference among the candidates in the six state races touched by his endorsements.

The figures showed the differences in the number who voted for governor and the other state races ranged from 75,668 in the attorney general's race to 178,032 in the election of the judge of the court of criminal appeals.

Interested in Uninterested. "It was those who did not vote for those other offices that were uninterested in knowing what I wanted them to vote for," O'Daniel said.

Citing precedents for his action, O'Daniel said "I will give voters the highest authorities known to man."

The first, he said, was Jesus Christ. "That you will remember," he said, "that Christ had a board of directors called the Apostles, and although perfect, he chose one apostle who betrayed him."

O'Daniel admitted that he may have erred in naming some of his preferences, but declared that the principle of wanting a cabinet of advisers, and the right to express his preferences were the same in all cases. The next cited the organization of the federal government, where in the President is elected by George Weinberg (above) accused James J. Hines, veteran Tammany leader, of accepting $500 a week or more to protect the $20,000,000 New York policy racket of the slain Dutch Schultz. Hines is on trial on charges of being the political buffer for the ring. Weinberg testified he personally paid Hines the money.

BELIEVED DECISIVE DEVELOPMENTS NEAR IN CZECHOSLOVAKIA

CRISIS THOUGHT REACHED IN SUDETEN GERMANS SETTLEMENT MATTER

LONDON, Aug. 25.—(AP)—A decisive development in the issue between the Czechoslovak government and its Nazi-supported, autonomy-seeking Sudeten German minority appeared imminent today after a hurried conference of British government officials here. Diplomatic observers expressed belief a crisis probably had been reached pointing either to a complete agreement on a friendly basis or an open break between the Prague government and the Sudeten Germans.

Speculation was aroused by the hurried release of F. T. Ashton-Gwatkin, right hand man of Viscount Runciman, British unofficial mediator in the issue, for conferences with Viscount Halifax, foreign secretary, and Sir John Simon, chancellor of the exchequer. British officials insisted Ashton-Gwatkin flew to London on private business and merely happened to see the cabinet members.

But none would specify the nature of his private business or why he rushed from Prague by air plane. Ashton-Gwatkin wanted to see Lord Halifax last night and was persuaded to postpone his conference with the foreign secretary until today.

No official word acknowledged that the three men had discussed the Czechoslovak problem, but it was said privately, that was their only concern. Britain may have plans. Diplomatic quarters heard that Britain may have evolved plans for a new step toward solving Czechoslovakia's minority problem. One source suggested Great Britain had decided to give France unmistakable assurance of support if conflict resulted. And if France were called upon to fulfill treaty obligations to Czechoslovakia.

The French government is obligated to aid the little republic if it is attacked, but Britain has made no such commitment. The Czechoslovak minority troubles center about demands of the Nazi-endorsed Sudeten German and for autonomy in local government.

Chancellor Hitler of Germany has avowed the Nazis are protecting the Sudeten German minority.

JUICHANG REPORTED CAPTURED BY JAPS THURSDAY ASSAULT

SHANGHAI, Aug. 25.—(AP)—A final, successful assault on Juichang, a major objective in the Japanese drive toward the provisional capital of Hankow, was reported this afternoon in a Japanese army communique. The victory, the first notable Japanese advance since the invaders' occupation July 28 of Kiukiang, occurred in sweltering heat of 140 degrees.

Japanese observers maintained the fall of the walled city put the Japanese in a position to cut off flank 30 Chinese divisions deployed along the 90-mile railway between Kiukiang and Manchang.

Chinese military sources reported 30 Japanese warships steamed along Poyang Lake, a large body of water lying between Kiukiang and Manchang, and heavily bombarded Chinese shore positions near Wuichang on the west bank.

There has been general speculation regarding Farley's attitude toward Mr. Roosevelt's proposed "purge" of anti-administration democrats. The projected conference between the chief executive and his postmaster general was expected to clarify Farley's stand. Mr. Roosevelt presumably wanted information from Farley as to what the administration might accomplish in states now politically questionable. The president has had several

BAD SONS OF GOOD FATHERS ONE OF LIFE'S TRAGEDIES *

Dramatic Tale of Old Eli, High Priest of Israel, Comes Freighted With Modern Meanings
—The Basic Offense of Good Men in Permitting Evil.

By WILLIAM T. ELLIS

By the door of the tragic tale of old Eli we enter the awesome theme of the failure of good men to prevent or punish evil. It is not enough for a man to be good personally; he should be an active force for the spread of goodness and the prevention of wrong. Eli's only fault was that he was weak in curbing the wickedness of his sons. Heavily judgment upon Eli was that "thou honored thy sons above me." So he remains portrayed in the pages of history as one of the saddest of figures.

There are a vast majority of good people in the world. Yet through tolerance, weakness, indifference, timidity, or a curious blindness to their own power and rights, they permit brazen wickedness to stalk unhindered amongst them. The pusillanimity of the good is a greater force for evil than the perversity of the bad. The Eli's of the world, while the Phineases and Hophnis disgrace the nation.

Why are crooked politicians, grafters of high and low degree, perverters of youth, producers of demoralizing literature and films, gamblers, distributors of narcotics, and all the assorted agents of vice, permitted to exist and flourish in our day, amidst a so-called Christian civilization? Why is Japan allowed to wreck its heathen savagery upon defenseless China? Why has Spain become a worse shambles than any of its own bloody bull-rings? Why has England sacrificed so sanely to the vanity of an unrebuked megalomaniac? Why is war so ominously in the making for the whole world?

Simply because good people, sane, righteous-living people of good will, have not the gumption and conviction to assert themselves. We have a few Caleb's and too many Eli's. Righteousness lacks the militant spirit which so often characterized the life of the gentle Jesus, with a whip of small cords in His hand. Unless decent people wake up, and accept their primary obligation to enforce righteousness, world society will be a bad way indeed.

General Booth used to tell the story of the little girl who prayed that her bad brothers might not trap the birds; and that the birds might be kept from going into their traps. Then she went out and smashed the traps.

Old Eli, high priest, judge and ruler of ancient Israel, is a picture of futility. He was a good man, but negative. Under his sway religion relaxed and the moral tone of the nation slumped. His most conspicuous failure was in the wickedness of his two sons, who behaved shamefully. He was called "an indulgent father," which usually means a father who has not enough backbone to control his own family. Eli was condemned to the ignominy which he knew and he restrained them not.

At this point we are on delicate ground. For we are today reaping the fruits of a family life that let youth go its own way. Discipline disappeared from many families. "Obey that impulse" became the law for young and old. The four characteristic "R's" of really civilized living went into eclipse—Retinence, Reverence, Refinement and Religion. Fathers failed to give themselves to their sons; the only form of training worth mentioning; while mothers were too busy with artificial modern concerns to show their daughters what it really means to "live their own life." The Eli pattern of home government prevailed; and the result has been disaster to countless lives.

Preachers As Parents.

Naturally, the scandal caused in Israel by Phineas and Hophni was intensified by the fact that they were the sons of the high priest. "Preachers' sons and deacons' daughters" have always been the target for critics—although cold statistics show that preachers' sons turn out more successful than any other classification of boys.

It is an awesome thing to be a preacher, or Christian leader; and to have to be an exemplar of religious life. Heavy and sometimes irksome as is the responsibility, the reward is equally great. Most of us must shrink from becoming bishops or secretaries, lest the deadly paralysis of perfunctoriness get us into its grip. Eli had a high place of authority, to which he had proved unequal, as the warning which came by way of the boy Samuel made plain. Peril, as well as power, goes with position.

He Cared for the Ark.

Ninety-eight years old, blind, and weighed with flesh as with years, Eli preaches a pitiable picture as he sits by the wayside, waiting for news of Israel's battle with the Philistines. After a first defeat, the Jews had come to Shiloh and carried away with them the Ark of the Covenant, that is presence on the field might give them victory.

Old Eli's first concern was for the Ark. The safety of his renegade sons meant less to him than the Ark of the Lord. This is Eli at his best. A man is revealed by his anxieties. Are we more concerned over the news from China and Spain, and over the bitter plight of the poor, who by millions are eating the bread of charity, than we are over the state of our own personal fortunes? Vicariousness is at the heart of Christianity, and its symbol is a cross.

This Book of Samuel which we are studying is one of the most readable in the Bible, and full of incident and action. No passage is more appealing than that one which portrays the venerable Eli, with his sightless eyes turned down the road whence news would come from the battlefield. His heart was heavy with concern for the cause of Jehovah and His people. He could not see the messenger running, with

News of County Home Demonstration Clubs

Emhouse 4-H Club.
"Fruit Juices in the Menu" proved a very interesting subject to twenty 4-H girls August 17 as they met on a call meeting at their sponsor's home, Mrs. Lora Mae McManus. The song leader,

Helen Salter, was ill and a diversion of exciting games was played instead of the usual songs. Delicious refreshments were served. The uses of fruit juices in the menu was read by a member of the club and commented on by the group. It's importance and practical value was soon understood by all the group. "Going Out West," "Smile If You Love Me," "Acting" and "Show Your Teeth" were played to entertain the group. Spiced fruit punch was made and contributed by several of the girls, while Eva Allen and Mildred Salter contributed their share of the calls by bringing homemade cakes, cakes and pinwheel cookies in colors of pink, white and chocolate. A new member, Joan Johnson, joined the club during the meeting. Hazel Foglean was a welcome visitor to the session from Mexico. The group is only too eager to accept new members and welcome any and all visitors.

FIRST 1938 SERIES GOODWILL BANQUETS ANNOUNCED SEPT. 6

First of the 1938 series of goodwill banquets sponsored by the Retail Trade Committee of the Corsicana Chamber of Commerce has been announced by officials for Trinidad on September 6, at 7:30 p. m.

A meeting of the committee is expected immediately to complete the plans for the evening which will be held at the Texas Power and Light Company clubhouse, with the meal served by the ladies of the Baptist and Methodist churches. Further details of the meeting will be announced shortly.

Demonstration Home Announced Thursday

Announcement was made Thursday that construction of a "demonstration home" in Corsicana at 2403 Park Row would be started on September 1 by Franklin Seale of the firm of Seale and Browne. Plans for the home were originated by Mr. Seale and the general public is invited to inspect the place during construction.

On its completion, the home will be completely furnished and will be open for inspection for a week as a part of the "Small Home Demonstration Program" sponsored by Federal Housing Administration authorities.

FIRST REA PROJECT ENERGIZED

Officials of the Navarro County Electric Co-Operative, Inc., celebrated the completion of the first portion of their projects Thursday when a section of their lines in the southwestern portion of the county were ready to be energized for the first time. Announcement was also made that work would start Monday on a new 170 mile project in East Navarro and in Hill county. The board of directors of the co-operative are shown above. Reading from left to right: Burney Moore, Purdon; L. I. Griffin, secretary-treasurer, Corsicana; E. B. Dawson of Dawson; E. P. Estes, president, Roane; Earl M. Dawson, Frost; R. P. Garrett, White's Chapel; and William J. Bain, Kerens, vice-president.

WORK WILL START MONDAY ON LARGER REA PROJECT HERE COMPLETE FIRST RURAL ELECTRIFICATION PROJECT NAVARRO COUNTY

Almost simultaneously with the completion of the first rural electrification project officials of the Navarro County Electric Co-Operative Incorporated announced Thursday that work would begin next Monday on an even larger unit in separate portions of the territory.

An allotment was received early in the year of $100,000 for the construction of 140 miles of distribution lines in the southwestern section of the county. Clyde Kimes, co-operative superintendent, announced Thursday that the section of the project from Dawson south would be energized for the first time late Thursday if authority was received from Washington, and the remainder would be energized as soon as some needed extensions could be made, probably within the next few days. Approximately 200 homes will be served with electricity for the first time.

Announcement was made in Washington Monday that another allocation of $168,500 for 170 miles of lines serving 648 customers in East Navarro county and in Hill county had been made. Detailed plans of the new project were returned to local officials from Washington Wednesday. Up to the present time approximately $275,000 has been allotted to local co-operative for all purposes including construction, wiring and equipment loans.

The portion of the new project in East Navarro county will serve the communities and areas between Tupelo, Hester, Chatfield, Montfort, DeArman, Bazette, Buffalo, Powell, Oak Grove, Rural Shade, Round Prairie, Elm Flat, and the colored communities of Petersburg and Ebenezer. Supt. Kimes stated the engineering crew was scheduled to start staking the routes of the new lines Monday morning and would be followed immediately by easement and right-of-way crews.

The Hill county section will include Walling, Salem, and an area between Malone and Bynum, and in addition the colored community of Pelham.

Plans are now being completed on a third unit in the southeastern portion of the county and tentative plans are being prepared for extensions to the first two units.

C. V. TERRELL For Railroad Commissioner

It has been the policy of the present Commission members to protect these oil fields and any change in the personnel of the Commission at this time might not be for the best interests of old producing fields.

The payrolls of the various companies, in the Powell Field, amounts to approximately $20,000.00 monthly, practically all of which is spent in Corsicana and Navarro County. A change in the personnel of the Commission at this time might work to such end that it would be impossible to continue the operation and production of old fields such as the Powell Field.

Rufus Pevehouse Candidate For Sheriff Navarro County

I take this means to solicit your consideration and vote Saturday, August 27th.

It has been my purpose since I have been your Sheriff to make you the very best Sheriff possible. I have endeavored at all times to discharge my duties to your satisfaction, and I feel that my knowledge of modern methods of handling crime, and my wide acquaintance with law enforcement officers over the State, especially equip me to make you a better Sheriff now than when first elected.

In literature distributed to the voters it has been cited that since I have been your Sheriff, my salary has been $4,750.00 annually. The records of your county auditor's office will show that these representations are false, and that my salary as Sheriff has been as low as $2,800.00 annually after paying expenses of the office under the fee system. Your Sheriff's office has been on a salary basis only during the past two years.

Since I have been your Sheriff more than 1,500 arrests have been made for violation of the prohibition laws, and more than 10,000 individuals have been arrested for offenses committed in your county. Many have been convicted, many have not, but upon apprehension of a violator of the law, the duties of the Sheriff cease and shifts to the courts to prosecute, convict or acquit.

I have not during my administration had a jail break as some of my predecessors in office. Every prisoner entrusted to me has been safely kept, and none have evaded punishment inflicted by the courts. It has also been my good fortune to never injure any person in making arrests.

It has been necessary that I replace some of my deputies, and I have done so by employing men whom I believe will faithfully serve you.

If you feel that I have made you a good Sheriff, and if you believe that I will continue to do so, then I ask you to return me to this office upon my qualifications and experience as an officer.

I will appreciate your vote.

Respectfully,

Rufus Pevehouse

MEMBERS OF CITY HEALTH UNIT HELD MEETING WEDNESDAY

MRS. J. W. McADAMS MADE SECOND OF SERIES TALKS ON TUBERCULOSIS

Members of the City Health unit committee met in regular session on Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock in the city commissioners' room at the city hall, with representatives of various organizations present.

Mrs. J. W. McAdams brought the second of a series of talks on "Tuberculosis," the topic for the day being "What the Tubercle Bacilli Does to the Human Body." In the course of discussion, Mrs. McAdams stated that the following symptoms would be noted in early stages of tuberculosis: fatigue, loss of weight, a cough that hangs on, loss of appetite, indigestion, fever, pain in the chest, hoarseness and blood spitting.

Symptoms Noted. The symptoms noted in childhood tuberculosis are disinclination to play, failure to gain weight properly, frequent colds, lack of appetite, chest pains and slight afternoon fever. In some cases, it was stated, that active disease may be present in children for weeks or months before the appearance of any of these symptoms.

Mrs. McAdams stated that two important questions should be answered with reference to all school children. 1. Does the family history suggest tuberculosis? 2. Does the child have symptoms suggestive of tuberculosis?

It was brought out that the tubercle bacilli do not necessarily confine their activities to the lungs as it is often supposed, but that there is hardly a place in the body where they do not make themselves at home. The lymph glands which are situated all over the body, and are known as the "catch basins" of the va-

DEFEAT OF SENATOR HOLBROOK REMOVES ADMINISTRATION CRITIC FROM RANKS LAWMAKERS

By HOWARD C. MARSHALL
AUSTIN, Aug. 25.—(AP)—Defeat of Thomas Jefferson Holbrook of Galveston in his campaign for reelection means the Texas senate has lost one of its outstanding exponents of "rugged individualism."

The bald senate dean's declamatory explosions against the Roosevelt administration in the midst of a pro-New Deal assembly often reverberated through the upper legislative chamber.

Many were the times he warned his colleagues "the country was going to the dogs."

Able critic, the tall "Senator from Galveston" frequently used his prerogative as a "member of the Democratic party" to flay the party's policies which, he charged, were reducing states' rights to a negligible factor.

In oratory, Holbrook was regarded without peer in the upper house. Words flowed from his lips "like a silver stream."

His speech was effortless and his enormous vocabulary occasionally staggered listeners. Sometimes the words were to be found only in an unabridged dictionary.

On the occasion of the death of a well-known public official it usually fell to Holbrook to prepare and read memorials which were printed in the senate journal.

Among other things, Holbrook probably was one of the best historians in the legislature. His knowledge was not confined to Texas nor the United States, but to the world.

Since tuberculosis is the leading cause of death in the United States among persons between 15 and 45 years of age, members of the City Health Unit committee feel that Mrs. McAdams' discussions are of unusual importance to those who are interested in preventing the spread of communicable diseases.

At the next regular meeting of the committee on Wed. Aug. 31st Mrs. McAdams will discuss "The Prevention of Tuberculosis," and all who are interested are cordially invited to be present.

GREEN FLAT UNION MISSION CONTINUES GROWING IN WORKS

Our religious work in the Green Flat Union Mission continues to expand. We have recently won fourth place in a national Sunday school membership contest for schools under 100 in membership and will receive a prize of $25 cash for same, which we consider quite a distinction.

We have added more than 200 members to the various churches of the city this year and are preparing for a union missionary revival effort to begin the first week in September which we feel sure will reach many more of the underprivileged of Corsicana and increase our Sunday school attendance in a substantial manner.

We hope to build a permanent mission soon, using the $25 prize money as the initial payment on same.

We wish to thank everyone who has contributed to our revival campaign fund. The dedication of the meeting will be announced at an early date. We have secured the services of an outstanding evangelistic singer for this meeting and earnestly solicit your prayers for its success.

R. W. Knight, manager of the Chamber of Commerce, will be the guest speaker at the Mission on East Park avenue tonight and we are urging all who can possibly do so to attend.

Regular services as follows: Sunday school each Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Preaching services Sunday morning at eleven and Sunday evening at eight o'clock. Prayer-meeting services each Thursday night at eight o'clock. The public is cordially invited to attend.

MRS. JOE B. WILLIAMS, Missionary in Charge.

FIVE ADDITIONS TO BAPTIST CHURCH IN REVIVAL WEDNESDAY

Five additions, three by baptism and two by letter, were made Wednesday evening at the First Baptist church revival.

"Overboard for the Lost in Corsicana" was the subject of the pastor, Rev. E. T. Miller, at Wednesday evening's service. His subject was a large crowd. His subject Wednesday morning was "Taking in New Ground for the Lord in Corsicana."

The pastor brought the total to thirty since the two-week's series of services were started at the tent in the 1100 block on West Seventh avenue, Sunday morning.

The minister took as his scripture reading a section of the first chapter of Jonah, and outlined the trials, troubles and final return of that man of God, and issued a special appeal to Christians to return to their duty in God's work, repenting of their sins and doing what they could to help him. He showed how Jonah attempted to get away from the things God

To the Voters of Precinct No. 1

On Saturday you will be called upon to select your Justice of the Peace in Place No. 2 for the next two years. As voters who have the best interests of your County and your Precinct at heart, you will want to put into this office a man who is honest and fair, one who is capable of managing its affairs without becoming a burden upon the taxpayers, a man who has had some experience in dealing with human problems and who can judge the smaller matters presented to the Court in a fair and just manner. I am now considering my candidacy for reelection to this office, and I gladly invite you to check my record as Justice of the Peace. The record shows that I collected for Navarro County last year alone the sum of $3,502.00, which money was turned into the County Treasury from the fines and costs of the citizens of this Precinct. This amount is practically twice as much as I received from the county in the form of fees, and I am sure that the voters will realize that instead of being a burden upon the taxpayers and upon the County, I have made this office one which yields to the County money in excess of all its expenses. I have endeavored to make it a self-sustaining office, one of the few that is self-sustaining in this County.

I have at all times tried to be fair and just. I have my experience in this office will enable me to be more efficient, more capable, and more able to judge the matters that will come before the Court in the future. If re-elected, I shall continue to spend all my time and energy to conduct the affairs of this office honestly and capably. It is my desire to serve the citizens of this Precinct so that at the end of my next term it will be said that I earned and deserved the fees I received.

I need this office. I am not old enough to be eligible for the old age pension, and my health does not permit me to do manual labor. I am not possessed of any farm or other property that might yield a living, but I am thankful that I have sufficient health to perform all the duties required of a Justice of the Peace, and I feel grateful for the friends who have confidence in me and who honor me with this office.

If you see fit to support me on Saturday for Justice of the Peace in Place No. 2, I shall be humbly grateful for your support. I can only repay your vote and confidence by the continued discharge of the duties of that office, and I assure you that I shall exert every effort to make you an honest and fair Justice of the Peace. I thank you for your kind consideration.

Sincerely,
W. T. McFADDEN,
Candidate for Re-election Justice of Peace, Place 2.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO ALL ELECTION OFFICIALS!

Immediately upon the completion of the count of your box please phone (collect) results to the Corsicana Daily Sun.

The Sun will attempt to give complete county totals the night of the election. This will be impossible without your box.

Just tell the operator to connect you with the Daily Sun, Corsicana, (collect).

You should bear in mind that the Legislature passed a law requiring your returns to be phoned in immediately after the polls are closed and the count completed and imposes a stiff penalty on the precinct chairman if he shall neglect to do this. The law further provides that the official returns shall be made to the County Chairman within twenty-four hours after the ballots are counted. A fine of not less than $50.00 nor more than $1,000 is the penalty fixed by law for any violation of the election law.

This is very important and your co-operation will be greatly appreciated.

N. S. CRAWFORD,
County Chairman.

had directed him to do, and declared there were many Christians in Corsicana disobeying and refusing to do what they knew they should be doing in the work of God's cause.

An increase in attendance was reported for Wednesday morning's service.

Special musical features included a violin solo by Miss Ruth Brown, with Mrs. S. K. Brielet at the piano, and a vocal solo was given by Tommie Godfrey, educational director, with Miss Clover Rutherford as accompanist.

Large Attendance Eleventh Avenue Prayer Meeting

One hundred and five persons were present at the Eleventh Avenue Methodist prayer meeting Wednesday night at 7:30 o'clock. The pastor, Rev. R. B. Byus, continued with the discussion, "The Law of the Tithe." Two new titheers were added to the list of pledged titheers this week. This church has now a total of 64 who are tithing. At the close of the prayer service C. C. Turner presented the five candidates contesting for first place as the "Ladies Favorite." W. L. Bingham was declared the winner. The extra people who came to witness this service were not counted as present at the prayer meeting service.

MORE WHEAT PER ACRE

The Plant Breeding Institute at Cambridge, England, announces a new type of wheat yielding at least 10 per cent higher than the best existing British varieties. It is rust resistant. It should withstand heavy storms because it grows low. This grain is the result of ten years of intensive research. Only one further step is necessary before the seed may be released for commercial production. That is to assure whiteness of the grain which so far is slightly reddish in color.

This is good news, doubtless for England, or any country of small area that is trying to find ways to grow all its own essential foods in time of war. It is not such good news to the great grain-growing lands already glutted with more wheat than they can profitably market. Intensive research on the distribution phase is what the wheat countries need.

SOLDIER LEARNERS

One of the aims of the Spanish Republic was the education of its great illiterate peasant population. A start in that direction had been made, but when the war broke out two years ago nearly half the people were unable to read and write. They dropped their farm implements and took up guns, but the war an illiteracy was continued side by side with the war against Franco's armies.

An American correspondent who had heard of these soldier schools went on a tour of investigation in order to see them for himself. He found some of them in a quiet sector. The "militia of culture" was at work teaching the alphabet and reading to illiterate soldiers. The instruction included telling the story of their country's long struggle against the Moors and Napoleon and of its hopes for liberty.

The classes for illiterate soldiers are compulsory. But there are other classes attended voluntarily by officers and men who are not illiterate. In one of these the reporter found 100 men well beyond their A. B. C's, learning science and geography and other subjects of general culture which they had never before had opportunity to study.

Whatever the outcome of this present war in Spain, many of its soldiers will emerge from it with a good start toward an education. Perhaps it will help them to work out their country's salvation eventually by peaceful means.

TWO-POWER ISLANDS.

Ownership of those Pacific Islands that Uncle Sam hastily "colonized" a few months ago—tiny Eniwetok and Canton—is going to be settled without any unpleasant dispute. Both England and the United States claimed them. Both wanted them, not for colonies, but for strategic aviation purposes. Now, it appears, both are to have them.

The two governments have agreed formally that each should have equal privileges in using the islands for commercial air transport and communications bases. Actual sovereignty, they grant, is of secondary importance and can be considered later.

This sensible arrangement is believed to be the first of its kind in modern history. Secretary of State Hull says he hopes it will

THE WILD FLEDGLING.

Same home, same mother, same devoted dad;
Same schooling as the others this one had.
Same food—same air; same ground on which to play;
Yet four walked straight and this one went astray.

"He was their black sheep," so the sheriff said.
Over his faults the doctor shook his head.
Bothered by him the teachers thought that he had Dismissed him with the comment: "wholly bad!"

That was the simple answer. It was true
The pleasing deed he never learned to do.
Willful he was. The basest crimes he'd try
We all knew that, but none of us knew why?

Whose was the fault? Not hers nor his who grieved
But if the ancient threat can be believed
He brought to earth to riot in his kind
The sins of one, four generations dead.

PEACE PLEBISCITE

Both Paraguay and Bolivia have now ratified the Chaco peace treaty signed at Buenos Aires on July 21. In Bolivia this was done by act of its constitutional congress. In Paraguay the citizens themselves ratified the treaty in a rather remarkable plebiscite.

The Paraguayan vote is called the "greatest mass demonstration for peace in South American history." The registration for it, approximately 160,000 voters, was unusually heavy. The vote was nearly 10 to 1 for approval of the pact.

There are still ticklish problems connected with boundary settlement to be worked out, but with wholehearted popular support their successful solution should be assured.

Except in countries where propaganda has warped popular judgment, it is probable that the common people of the world would vote as unitedly for peace as the Paraguayans.

FRIENDLY PANAMA

Times have changed at Balboa and Colon since Uncle Sam "took Panama," virtually annexing a strip of that republic.

Theodore Roosevelt was, as he himself said, "a practical man." The big ditch had to be dug, and apparently the best place for it was right there, and Uncle Sam was the logical fellow to do the job. But Panama seemed unreasonable about it. She was sore for a long time afterward, although reasonably well paid for the property needed and benefiting greatly by the improvements made.

Well, the old enmity seems quite gone at last. Another President Roosevelt, breezing in from a Pacific fishing trip, was welcomed heartily as representative of "the world's best neighbor." A leading Panama newspaper said: "The United States means more than a good neighbor to Panama; it is Panama's best collaborator and best friend."

For that, many thanks. Uncle Sam will try to continue deserving the friendship of Panama and her neighbors.

provide an example for other countries. It is a small incident in a world of tremendous ones which threaten civilization itself, but it is based on a principle which might, in a rational world, be applied in far more important matters.

"Use" has been recognized as superior to "title." Instead of fighting like two dogs over a bone or two children over a toy, England and the United States behaved like adults seeking mutual benefit. Think what this attitude would accomplish in helping the "have-not" nations of the world meet their very real difficulties!

There is sardonic humor in the way the whole world gets the jitters every time one of the dictators scowls or parades his troops.

The last time Japan fought Russia, American sympathy was with the Japs. Turn about's fair play.

Another terrible misfortune for American farmers—too much grain.

MUSICAL PATRIARCH ON JAZZ

Paul Whiteman, "King of Jazz," is the son of Wilberforce Whiteman, aged 80, who has directed the music of the Denver Public schools for 40 years and in all that time has never allowed a note of jazz to be played in the schools. He says he brought Paul up on the classics, and still hates jazz and swing music and despises crooning. He "likes Paul's manner of playing new things" and thinks he's a "humdinger," but remains true to his own principles.

"Everything in the world today is chaotic, even music," he adds, "and Paul's great idea is that out of the modern music things will arise which ought to be preserved."

Very likely so. That is the way changes come and the world moves on. But what head-aches and ear-aches and stomach aches it sometimes gets in the transition period!

The Palisades Interstate Park of New York and New Jersey is looking for some folklore to make the place more interesting. A nice business might be built up to produce that sort of thing.

On the whole, being a President's son seems to be something of a handicap. Whatever you do, you're accused of presidential jimmyming.

It's time for the Japs and Russians to get together over a samovar of tea and call everything off, including the Chinese war.

There are plenty of raw materials in the world it seems, to give everybody plenty. Trouble is, there are too many raw deals.

"Rain Washes Out Political Rallies" says the headline. And time will wash out most of the political promises.

FUNERAL SERVICES MONDAY AFTERNOON MRS. J. F. TAYLOR

Funeral services for Mrs. J. F. Taylor, aged 72 years, who died early Monday morning, were held Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock from the First Baptist church. Interment was made in Oakwood cemetery. The rites were conducted by Rev. E. T. Miller, pastor of the church, assisted by Rev. J. M. P. Moore of Jacksonville.

Mrs. Taylor was a native of Mississippi, but came to Texas when two years of age and had resided in Corsicana for 35 years. She was preceded in death by her husband, July 20, this year.

Surviving are a son, Will M. Taylor, Corsicana; four daughters, Mrs. M. B. Autry, Corsicana; Mrs. Mabel Robinson, Corsicana; Mrs. T. A. Sweeney, Bryan; and Mrs. Sue Cook, Corsicana; nine grandchildren, two great-grandchildren, two sisters, Mrs. Mollie Dunlap, Millerton, and Mrs. Amelia McKinney, Lubbock; brother, Robert Poole, Millerton, and other relatives.

Palbearers were J. W. Jefferson, Hood Cheney, Dr. T. O. Willis, Russell Purdy, J. S. Millerman, C. A. Middleton, Guy Love and Lawrence McGill.

Sutherland-McCammon Funeral Home directed the arrangements.

Girls 4-H Club Is Organized Emhouse

The idea of organizing a 4-H club at Emhouse, brought eighteen excited and thrilled girls ranging from the ages of ten to twenty to the old Tabernacle, August first, which was designated to be the place of meeting. The club was organized by Miss Clara E. Retiger, Navarro County Home Demonstration agent, and sponsored by Mrs. Lola Mae McManus of Emhouse. The club is to meet every first and third Monday, and Miss Retiger is to meet with the club every first Monday. Bernadette fastening, hemstitching and Swedish weaving were practiced during the meeting to be used on hand towels to be made by the members. The members drew names to see who was to be their secret sister which is to be a very interesting feature of the club.

This club was the first of its kind to be organized in Emhouse, and its enrollment is expected to be large. Each girl is to have a secret sister who is to give her a present every third Monday. The gift is to be practical and the price from ten to twenty-five cents. If a girl has a birthday during the month she is to receive two presents.

Officers were elected as follows: President, Mildred Johnson, vice-president, Marie Johnson, secretary, Marjorie Bennett, song leader, Helen Salter and reporter, Mildred Salter. Committees: Pro-

SMALLPOX Still A Menace

Before vaccine that protects against smallpox was discovered, the disease was one of the worst scourges of mankind. Gradually, since vaccination has become so universal, smallpox is being stamped out.

However, smallpox is still with us and is unexpectedly bobbing up from time to time. Wide travel and crowds that bring people into such close contact, make it necessary to be protected.

Today vaccination is simple, practically painless, and ill-effects are extremely rare. The vaccination should be done by a reputable physician and the same care exercised against infection as with any other skin abrasion.

CORSICANA BOY WON SPECIAL HONORS AT CULVER ACADEMY

CULVER, Ind., Aug. 23.—(Sp.)—Climaxing one of the most successful summer sessions since the founding of the summer naval school in 1902, the 745 summer school students in the naval, cavalry and woodcraft units in the Culver summer schools at the Culver Military Academy departed Saturday morning following the commencement exercises.

Certificates were presented to the graduates in the three schools and special awards were made at the closing exercises Saturday. Assisting Admiral Hugh Rodman, U. S. navy, retired, and director of the summer schools, in the presentation of awards were Rear Admiral Haynes Ellis, commandant of the Ninth Naval District, Great Lakes, Ill., and Frank Phillips, New York, chairman of the board of the Phillips Petroleum Company.

The three-day commencement exercises featured military, social, athletic activities and the annual meeting of the Culver Summer Schools Alumni Association.

William M. Curtis, 212 West Fifth avenue, Corsicana, Texas, was honored during the commencement week, winning gold medals in the swimming competition. At the graduation exercises Saturday he received a medal awarded annually to the student who wins the highest number of points in junior athletics. He was awarded a silver Tuxedo for all-around achievement made during the summer.

ADDITIONAL FURNITURE IS NEEDED TO FURNISH GIRLS NYA HOME—OPENS SEPT. 1ST

Much interest has been manifested in the furniture show for the NYA Home for Girls this week, and numerous worthwhile contributions have been made by citizens of the city and county. The response has been gratifying to those who are working to establish the Home, but many things are still needed. The Home is expected to open on Sept. 1st—one week from today, and local citizens are urged to search their attics and storerooms for the following articles that are greatly needed for this worthy project: single or double beds with mattresses, spring and pillows, dressers, ice boxes or refrigerators, cups and saucers, cooking utensils of all kinds, knives, forks and spoons. Those who have articles that they will donate to the home, may communicate with the supervisor, Mrs. C. J. Colp, 476; Mrs. Lynne Vortham, 1288; or Mrs. Joe Volens, 2229, and drayage will be furnished. Since the time is so short, those who care to contribute to the cause are urged to do so this week.

What About Your Supreme Court?

Who is best qualified for this important place? Ask your lawyer about Judge Richard Critz. Solely upon his record Judge Critz has won the confidence of both the Bench and Bar of Texas and has grown steadily in their favor. In the meridian of usefulness, it would be little short of a calamity visited upon the judiciary to displace him at this time.

The Corsicana Bar has unanimously endorsed Judge Critz for reelection to his second term, viz:

Announce 2 New Managers Local Business Houses

Two Corsicana business establishments, the Safeway Store No. 11, at 300 North Commerce, and Kinney's Shoe Store on North Beaton street, have new managers this week.

Lee Morgan, assistant manager of the Safeway store in Hillsboro for four years and assistant manager of the Safeway store in Taylor for two years, assumed his duties as manager of the Corsicana store No. 11, Thursday.

Pat Mitchell, an employee of Kinney's Shoe company for eight years took over duties as manager of the Corsicana store Monday. He was assistant manager of the Fort Worth store for two years and has been employed in other Kinney stores in Abilene and Waco. He and Mrs. Mitchell are residing at 1417 West Fourth avenue.

Both of the new managers will be happy to get acquainted with their store's customers and former customers.

Corporation Court.
One charge of making a left turn on Beaton street, one of parking in a fire lane, and two of making right turns on red lights without stopping brought offenders into the Corsicana Corporation Court Thursday morning.

KERENS YOUTH WAS INJURED BY AUTO; ARM IS AFFECTED

ATHENS, Aug. 24.—(Sp.)—Clyde McCord, Kerens youth, was seriously injured Monday when he was reported to have been struck by a hit and run driver. The injury was sustained while he was taking pictures at the Trinity river bridge. He saved the life of a companion by pushing him from the patch of the automobile.

Dr. John P. Searis, Trinidad physician, performed an operation and expressed the opinion the arm could be saved.

The handle of the passing car it was reported was driven through the upper part of the right arm of McCord, tearing the muscles and leaders loose from the bones and joints.

Gives Bible to Church.

KERENS, Aug. 24.—(Spl.)—Mr. and Mrs. Josh Speed have given to the First Baptist church of Kerens a lovely pulpit Bible of such good workmanship and covering it should last as long as the church stands. The pastor, Rev. M. O. Chock, joined by the entire membership, wish to express heartfelt thanks for this timely gift.

To the Voting Public

The campaign is coming to a close and I am taking this method of thanking the public for past favors and asking assistance in the coming primary.

I have taken part in no combination with anyone to elect or defeat any candidate, not even my opponent. I have treated him fair. The only mention that I have made of him is that he has had the office two terms and I would like to see him have a vacation, and should I be elected and be lucky enough to hold the office for four years, I won't have to be put out by voters.

I receive no pensions, nor can I get one, although I was a teacher for over forty years and am over sixty-five years of age.

As to property, I have one small house, clear of debt, and twenty-eight acres of farm land for which I owe Fifteen Hundred Dollars. No school teacher has money or time to accumulate much property. I have been out of school work for the past two years.

With these facts, I respectfully ask you to vote for me Saturday, for the office of Justice of the Peace, Precinct 1, Place 2.

P. H. (Pat) GERAUGHTY. (Pol. Adv.)

SECOND TERM

NAVARRO COUNTY

My friends, if you think a man with both legs off, with a wife and two small children and no other means for support is entitled to a Second Term, then vote for me on August 27.

We gave this office to Mr. Penny of Kerens for two terms. By having it two terms it enabled him to pay most of his debts and go into a small business, which is my desire to do. I assure you your vote and influence will be appreciated by both my family and myself.

When you drink Beer in a tavern...choose your tavern

WHEN YOU restrict your patronage to legal, respectable retail outlets, you not only encourage those better outlets but you've made a start toward driving out the bad spots in your community.

And that is exactly the aim of the great body of honest retailers of beer who, along with the brewers, recognize that Beer's only problem is to remove the anti-social conditions that sometimes surround its sale.

Existing laws can curb these evils. Help us by demanding their strict enforcement! Sales to minors, or after legal hours...or use of a beer license as a screen, for selling illicit liquor or for operating an illicit resort...all these are violations of the law and should be stopped. Public opinion, once aroused, can see that such practices are stopped!

New Press Box Is Being Constructed Tiger Grid Field

Work is under way in the erection of a new press coop at Tiger field, home of Corsicana High athletic teams. The work was started Monday. Earl Smaling is in charge of the construction.

The new coop is double the old one formerly used for the scribes' work and announcers.

When the new steel stand, 200 feet wide, was authorized for the west side of the field by school authorities, it was necessary to demolish the old press stand.

The new structure, located back and above the new stands, will have ample accommodations for those entitled to press privileges in this section. The box is of lumber, steel, and sheet iron

HOME AND CONTENTS DESTROYED BY FIRE WEDNESDAY NIGHT

Fire of undetermined origin extensively damaged the residence of J. M. Westbrook at 1018 West Sycamore avenue about 11 o'clock Wednesday night. Loss was estimated by fire department officials in excess of $2,000.

The house was owned by W. S. Kellum and damage was estimated well over $1,000 and the residence was occupied by both J. M. Westbrook and Morris Westbrook. All furniture, clothing and personal effects were reported lost, and loss was estimated over $1,000.

Fire Chief Elmer Keith said the fire apparently started around the front porch and swept through the entire house, fanned by a south wind.

Oklahoma City Couple Wed In Streetman At Home Bride's Mother

STREETMAN, Aug. 25.—(Sp.)—In a setting of beautiful simplicity, the wedding of Mrs. Emma Milner Belford of Oklahoma City, daughter of Mrs. J. N. Milner, of Streetman, and Oliver Thomas Page, of Oklahoma City, was solemnized Friday evening at the home of the bride's mother.

Summer flowers in pastel shades decorated the living room of the Milner home for the occasion. The bride wore a gown screened by a beautiful arrangement of trailing vines to form an improvised altar, and was flanked on either side by tall baskets of sweet lavender and pink and white crepe myrtle. Roses and fern in crystal bowls on the mantel completed the charming setting.

The Rev. O. Barton, pastor of the First Baptist church of Streetman, read the marriage ritual. Mrs. Hugh Burleson, of Streetman, gave a soft rendition of MacDowell's "To a Wild Rose" as a pre-nuptial solo, and played the traditional Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin as the wedding party entered.

The bride was lovely in a gown of rippled organza, styled with long full skirt, shirred front, and tiny bolero with puffed sleeves. The pastel tones of the delicate flower print of her gown were repeated in her charming turban of dainty flowers, from which a veil of pink bridal illusion fell in graceful folds. She carried a white prayer book from which fell a shower of lilies of the valley tied with satin ribbon, and wore a corsage of gladioli in peach-pink.

Mrs. Page's attendants were her son, Tommy Belford, of Oklahoma City, and a niece, Miss Frances Milner, of Streetman. Miss Milner's gown was fashioned of white tulle over taffeta, with bouffant skirt. Crystal buttons and bands of lace were dainty accents. She wore white gardening gloves.

Immediately following the ceremony an informal reception was held. The dining table was centered with pastel zinnias and sweet lavender. Mesdames Gilbert Milner and P. C. Milner served wedding cake to the guests, assisted at the punch bowl by Miss Mary Nell Milner, of Henrietta, and Mrs. Tom

PLANS FOR TIGER PICNIC BY DADS CLUB OUTLINED MONDAY

The Dads' Club executive committee was entertained at a finely appointed dinner Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Roberts, 1561 West Third avenue. Plans for the picnic honoring the members of the Corsicana Tiger football team were perfected. A picnic will be given the boys at Magnolia Lake a week from tonight (Tuesday, Aug. 30).

Beauford H. Jester, chairman of the aims and objectives committee of the club, resigned that post to accept the chairmanship of the athletic committee, held by the late John P. Garitty. J. M. Dyer, Jr., was elected vice president and chairman of the aims and objectives committee to succeed Jester.

President W. A. Lang appointed a committee composed of C. S. Dickens, chairman, "Speedy" Adams, Ed Wendorf, Jack Roberts, C. L. Terry and S. K. Brietz to have charge of the picnic arrangements.

Postal cards will be sent the members of the club immediately in an effort to ascertain the number to prepare for at this big picnic.

John A. Pierce, Corsicana coach, will be in charge of the program for this occasion and will secure a Southwest conference coach as the principal speaker.

Among the officials present were President Lang, Vice Presidents Sadie Ransom, program; Ralph Stett, finance; Ed Wendorf, membership; Beauford Jester, athletics; Joe Wolens, grievance and welfare; A. B. Horn, pep squad and band, and secretary E. Y. Cunningham, Mr. Roberts, the host; treasurer; Paul Moore, publicity chairman, and Coach Pierce.

W. Art Martin, chairman of the educational committee, was reported out of town.

The various vice presidents will announce their committee members within the next few days. The first regular meeting of the club will be held in September.

CORRIGAN

Then, answering a shouted question, "No, I don't think I have it on backwards."

AUSTIN, Aug. 25.—(AP)—Texas officially opened its arms to smiling Douglas Corrigan today. Arriving at the Capital's municipal airport at 11:40 a. m., he was met by Governor James V. Allred and welcomed while thousands cheered.

Corrigan flew to Austin from Lufkin, in East Texas. He had spent the night at Shreveport. He planned to stay about three hours in Austin and leave for San Antonio at 3 p. m.

There was a big traffic jam at the airport but state and city police forced a way through for the diminutive aviator and started him in an automobile, behind smiling engineers, for the city's business section.

The program called for a parade from in front of Texas' huge red-granite state house down Congress Avenue, the city's main thoroughfare, to the business area, with Corrigan riding alone in a small airplane, mounted on a truck and pointed the "wrong way."

He was to be entertained by city and state dignitaries at a luncheon, presented a cowboy hat and otherwise fêted.

Big crowds roared applause as Corrigan at the head of a procession of automobiles and himself riding with Governor Allred and Mayor Tom Miller arrived at the Capitol and rolled slowly through the statehouse grounds.

He quickly climbed to the truck-mounted airplane and stood up, waving to the throngs of people which lined the avenue for many blocks. He was wearing a leather jacket and was bareheaded.

Then, with a drum and bugle corps of the local American Legion following closely and supplying martial music, Corrigan began his parade down the historic avenue.

Lufkin Plans Celebration.

LUFKIN, Aug. 25.—(AP)—An hour's celebration, featuring a parade in which an aviator selected an automobile of ancient vintage as his vehicle, awaited the arrival today of Douglas Corrigan, transatlantic crate flier. Corrigan was at Shreveport last night, telephoning Mayor W. W. Glenn he would make his first Texas stop in Lufkin at 9 a. m. instead of noon as originally announced. Glenn said Corrigan told him he was scheduled to be at Austin at noon, therefore decided to visit Lufkin earlier.

Governor James V. Allred at Austin said Corrigan had informed he would arrive in the capital at 11:30 a. m. remaining there until 3 p. m. when he will depart for San Antonio. Corrigan will go to Galveston, place of his birth, tomorrow morning.

Leaves Shreveport Early. SHREVEPORT, La., Aug. 25.—(AP)—Douglas Corrigan departed from Shreveport at 8:05 a. m. today for a 9 a. m. stop at Lufkin and a 12 o'clock noon stop at Austin Texas, where he will be the guest of Gov. Allred. He expected to leave Austin in time to reach San Antonio at 4 p. m. today.

The diminutive Irishman who crossed the Atlantic July 17-18 and his nine-year-old plane left exactly on schedule.

Stops in Lufkin. LUFKIN, Aug. 25.—(AP)—Douglas Corrigan smilingly winged off to Austin in his bargain-priced flying machine today at the end of a 40-minute celebration by Corrigan enthusiasts.

Five thousand persons lined this town's main streets for a parade in which the young Texas-born ocean hopper rode atop a fire truck.

That blazing red vehicle was pressed into service when plans of his welcome to use an ancient Model-T were awry. The old car wouldn't budge.

"Other things got mixed too," Corrigan blandly grinned in apparent reference to his haywire hop to Ireland.

He left for Austin at 9:50 a. m. He planned to fly to San Antonio late today and to Galveston, place of his birth, tomorrow.

Austin Prepares Welcome. AUSTIN, Aug. 25.—(AP)—The capital city prepared a rousing welcome today for Douglas Corrigan, who notified Governor James V. Allred he would arrive at 11:30 a. m.

A parade, a luncheon and presentation of a 10-gallon sombrero, traditional token of Texas hospitality, were on the program for the trans-Atlantic flier.

He planned a hop to San Antonio after visiting Austin. Galveston was scheduled for a visit tomorrow.

PORT WORTH, Aug. 25.—(AP)—The state Baptist student conference, considered by gubernatorial nominee W. Lee O'Daniel as representing 25,000 votes against legalized horse race betting in Texas, adjourned last night and will hold its next meeting at Memphis, Tenn., in October as part of a Southwide assembly of all state groups.

O'Daniel yesterday told a committee of Baptist youths here that he would not change his "open mind" attitude toward legalized race track betting until he had a representative poll of opinions from the entire state.

He told the meeting, however, he would not change his "open as 25,000 votes against betting, the committee declaring it represented that many Texas Baptist College students. O'Daniel said his "open mind" policy meant he was open to opinions by the people and that he would make no statement until the matter became a political issue.

O'Daniel to Speak at Fair. DALLAS, Aug. 25.—(AP)—Gubernatorial nominee W. Lee O'Daniel will be the principal speaker for natural resources day at the State Fair here Oct. 15.

O'Daniel accepted yesterday following a visit to Fort Worth by John M. Spellman, director general of the Institute of Natural Resources.

Exhibits Freak Egg. R. M. Drane of the Black Hills community was exhibiting a freak egg in Corsicana Thursday. It was perhaps one half the regular size and one side was flat and on the flat side was a circle with ridges extending in all directions resembling rays. Sick and Convalescent. Judge A. E. Foster was unable to be at his office at the courthouse Thursday due to a sprained right ankle. He injured his ankle Wednesday night when he stepped off a curb.

Mrs. Mable Wilkinson, deputy county clerk, is reported on the sick list this week.

BAPTIST STUDENT CONFERENCE SEEKS RACE BETTING STAND

WANT INFORMATION ON THE MATTER FROM O'DANIEL
NOT OUTSIDERS

FORT WORTH, Aug. 23.—(P)—Although supporters of W. Lee O'Daniel had assured Baptist leaders that the governor-nominee will oppose re-legalization of horse race betting, the Baptist student conference at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary today moved to obtain a stand on the question from O'Daniel himself.

"Since the issue has again arisen with the statement that you have an open mind on the matter," the resolution adopted without dissenting vote set out, "We feel that Texas wants and needs a new declaration of independence, a declaration against legalized race track gambling which puts in jeopardy the economic, political and moral life of our people."

"We are praying," it concluded, "that you will take a public stand against race track gambling."

A letter written by Carl E. Collins, Dallas, O'Daniel's advisor, and a statement made by Collins to Dr. L. R. Scarborough, president of the seminary and the Southern Baptist convention, were quoted on the convention floor.

Collins gave in both his assurance that O'Daniel will oppose the pari-mutuel system of betting.

"It is a strange situation," Rev. J. B. Tidwell, head of the Baylor University Bible department, commented at the conference, "that we have to go to an outsider to find out how the governor-elect stands on moral issues."

He suggested the group pass the resolution and obtain a direct answer from O'Daniel.

To Have Courage of Lion.
Dr. Scarborough said Collins, in a telephone conversation last night, had declared, "I can assure you this group of young people and all the moral people of the state that Mr. O'Daniel will have the courage of a lion and will stand by all the moral issues."

The letter, from Collins to Rev. Jeff D. Ray of the seminary, said in part:

"You do not need to have any apprehension whatever about the governor-elect on any moral question. He is one of the finest and cleanest men I ever knew. The little statement he made the other day, which was played up by the newspapers, is not to be construed as sympathy for race horse gambling. I know how he stands on this and all other moral questions, and I am confident that after the conclusion of his term as governor, you will appraise him as one of the finest governors Texas ever had."

C. E. Bryant, Jr., Waco, chairman of the committee which was named to present the resolution to the democratic nominee, said he hoped to call on O'Daniel Tuesday. Other members of the committee are Lem Paul Hensley, Hardin-Simmons University; Jim Behrman, Texas A. and M. College; Dorothy McQuiston, Texas Technological College, and Marion Sledge, Rice Institute.

HUNGARY IS GIVEN RIGHT TO REARM BY LITTLE ENTENTE

THREE NATIONS AGREE TO ABROGATE ARMS RESTRICTIONS INTEREST PEACE

BLED, Yugoslavia, Aug. 23.—(P)—The little entente swept away the military clauses of another world war treaty today and gave Hungary the right to rearm "in the interest of peace."

The three nations—Czechoslovakia, Rumania and Yugoslavia—agreed to abrogate arms restrictions in the Trianon treaty and grant military equality to Hungary.

The action followed a similar move by the Balkan entente which includes Rumania and Yugoslavia, on July 30 wiping out military clauses of the treaty of Neuilly which limited Bulgaria's rearmament.

Dr. Milan Stoyadinovich, premier of the Balkan entente which includes Rumania and Yugoslavia, made the announcement at the close of a three-day conference of Little Entente foreign ministers in this little resort.

He said the principle of an understanding had been reached with Hungary also on bilateral non-aggression pacts and minority problem details which would be negotiated between Hungary and the three nations individually.

Conversations on Danubian navigation, he said, also would be held in Belgrade "in the fall."

A formal communique expressed satisfaction over improvement of the international situation in Europe, particularly between the Little Entente countries and their neighbors.

The communique contained references to the League of Nations which observers considered slightly critical, but there was no indication the states contemplated a break with the League.

Hungarian Report.
BUDAPEST, Aug. 23.—(P)—Hungarian official sources said today the Little Entente nations—Czechoslovakia, Rumania and Yugoslavia—had agreed to grant Hungary military equality.

This decision was reached by foreign ministers of the three nations meeting with Hungarian diplomats at Bled, Yugoslavia.

It calls for revision of the Trianon treaty, removing arms restrictions placed upon Hungary at the end of the World War.

Identical communiques will be issued in Budapest and Belgrade later today, stating that other points of difference will be negotiated on a bilateral basis between Hungary and the Little Entente states individually.

These negotiations were expected to result in non-aggression pacts and increased protection for minority groups.

Yugoslav sources said Germany, now trying to extend her influence into Southeastern Europe, was annoyed at Italy's alleged efforts to gain supremacy in the Danube basin.

Petrescu Commen, Rumania's foreign minister, was reported due in Rome in the near future to conclude a friendship accord with Italy similar to the five-year treaty signed by Italy and Yugoslavia last October.

The action of the Little Entente came while the Hungarian regent, Admiral Nicholas Horthy, and other high Hungarian officials were on a visit of state to Germany.

TWO STATES AND FEDERAL GOVERNMENT WANTS TWO BANDITS

NINE WITNESSES POINT OUT
HAMILTON AND WALTERS
AS ROBBERS

DALLAS, Aug. 23.—(P)—Eight robbery by firearms charges were filed today against Floyd Hamilton and Ted Walters, captured here Sunday after a four-month search. The crimes charged included robberies ranging from $1,200 to $15,000.

Under heavy guard the Dallas desperados were transferred from the city to county jail—in the same cell block which held Floyd's brother Raymond before he was taken to Huntsville and the electric chair in 1935.

Walters and his companion in crime won't be allowed bond if District Attorney Andrew Patton can prevent it. Patton also announced he was pressing for quick grave action and speedy trials. Robbery by firearms is a capital offense in Texas.

Hamilton was transferred to the county jail despite his plea for hospitalization. His ankle, torn by a shot fired at him by federal agents Saturday night, was swollen and painful.

Walters' grandmother and mother visited him this morning.

Pointed Out as Robbers.
Nine witnesses yesterday pointed out the two out as the men who committed five robberies here in the last few months.

The State of Arkansas also moved toward securing custody of Hamilton and Walters in connection with robbery of the Bradley, Ark., bank in June.

While federal agents filed complaints naming Hamilton, Walters, "Joe Doe" and "Richard Roe" as violators of the Dyer National Motor Theft Act, the charges were filed as Shreveport, accusing the quartet of transporting a stolen automobile from Vivian, La., to Bradley.

The 16-year-old girl held in Texas after an admitted traveling with Hamilton and Walters was released, state highway officer, Thomas H. Vannoy, stating that she had been held in custody.

Detective Inspector Will Fritz, who announced identification of the two in the Dallas robberies, witnesses in four other hejackings sought to identify the suspects today.

PENSION QUESTION
UPPERMOST IN MINDS
TEXANS AT PRESENT

By HOWARD C. MARSHALL
FORT WORTH, Aug. 23.—(P)—Where will W. Lee O'Daniel find the money to pay for his liberalized old age pension program and how much will he have to find?

These are questions being asked by the headquarters of the new democratic nominee for governor as well as all over the capitol in Austin and most other places in Texas.

O'Daniel is not answering them at present. He didn't go into detail concerning them during his campaign. In effect he says there will be plenty of time after the primary election Saturday when he will begin an intensive study of the old age assistance problem.

But he adds he believes "the legislature will discover the ways and means" for consummating the all-important pledge which he made to the people of Texas.

In his speeches and statements, there is no deviation from his campaign declaration the full amount of pensions authorized by the constitution should be paid to everyone over 65 years of age.

O'Daniel in his campaign and since has repeatedly spoken of $15 matching money from the federal government, urging the possibility of bringing money from out of state into Texas as one argument for boosting the state payments.

A high official in the pension administration has suggested the federal government probably would withdraw all aid if the need basis was ditched in Texas.

ADMISSION CHARGE, OTHER DETAILS ARE ANNOUNCED FOR FAIR

BIG PARADE IS PLANNED FOR OPENING DAY WITH SUITABLE PRIZES

Additional operative details of the first season of the Corsicana Livestock and Agricultural Show Oct. 5-8 in the permanent plant just east of the city were announced Tuesday morning at a meeting of the board of directors.

Admission fees for the fair were placed at 10 cents for children and 15 cents for adults by the board, and it was also decided that the parking space would be free.

Fred M. Allison was named chairman of a special committee to provide a fence at the front of the fair grounds.

Manager R. W. Knight reported that $500 worth of commercial exhibit space had been sold in the agricultural building, and that $462.50 had been contributed to the fair by residents outside the city of Corsicana.

The board decided to use these funds for placing a floor in the agricultural building.

Two tents have been ordered to augment the space in the permanent buildings; one 50x120 will be devoted to the poultry department, and another 26x80 will be used for hogs, sheep, and horses.

The scale of admissions for the Texas Championship Rodeo which will be operated in conjunction with the exhibits by the fair association was set at 50 cents for general admissions, with reserved seats at 25 cents extra, and box seats at 50 cents extra.

The board authorized a big parade on opening day with cash prizes for various floats and contests, with the rules and regulations to be worked out later.

The manager was authorized to use discretionary powers in handling certain minor details of the fair operations.

Friends point out, however, that he always has differentiated between state and federal matching money. A constitution says $15 a month is the maximum which may be paid.

Federal Payments.
The federal government has promised to match state payments under a program which it approves. At this point, then, of maximum state payments and possible federal matching, observers begin to figure costs.

Approximately 112,500 persons received checks averaging $12.76 and totalling about $1,500,000 for August. The state paid one-half of this amount and the federal government half.

State pension officials say that under the present plan of assistance based on need, it was an average month. The annual cost they estimated at about $1,500,000 monthly or $8,000,000 in other words, Texas' yearly bill for pensions now is about $8,000,000.

The same pension officials estimate there are approximately 278,000 persons in Texas over 65 years of age, virtually all of whom would be eligible for pensions if the need basis was removed.

If $15 was paid each of these persons, the state's bill for old age assistance would become $50,000,000.

O'Daniel in his campaign and since has repeatedly spoken of $15 matching money from the federal government, urging the possibility of bringing money from out of state into Texas as one argument for boosting the state payments.

A high official in the pension administration has suggested the federal government probably would withdraw all aid if the need basis was ditched in Texas.

PRESIDENT LAUDED ALIEN DIRECTED YOUTH CONGRESS

WASHINGTON, Aug. 23.—(P)—A witness told the house un-American committee today the "Stalinist-supported chairman" of the "alien directed" American youth congress had received a letter from President Roosevelt in 1936 lauding the congress for aiding democracy.

Professor Edward I. Fenlon of the philosophy department of Brooklyn College added another member of the family has gone out of the way unwittingly to inspire the alien spirit that undoubtedly controls this congress. Fenlon did not name the members of the family immediately, but later said it was Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt.

The congress to which Fenlon referred met in Milwaukee in 1936. He said the President also sent a letter of regard to the American youth congress at its last December meeting at Poughkeepsie.

Fenlon, bespectacled middle-aged professor who came to Brooklyn College from St. Mary's College in California eight years ago, said there was a deliberate united front program to "pull the wool over the eyes of the authorities and people."

The witness also contended the world youth congress now meeting at Yassar College was radical-dominated and a "danger" to democracy because it serves to spread the "leaven" of communism.

Fenlon also told the committee Brooklyn College "might quite fairly be labeled a hotbed of propaganda" and communist activities.

The witness added that in his opinion there was widespread communist activity in many other colleges across the country.

Professor Fenlon, who formerly was connected with St. Mary's College in California, said professors and students were "degraded" with communist propaganda which at times littered stairways and sidewalks in places "perhaps a half inch thick."

He added "The Teachers Union," a CIO affiliate active at Brooklyn College, was in his opinion "communist controlled."

Chairman Dies (D-Tex.) announced that public hearings would be recorded after today's session. He said a subcommittee of four headed by Rep. Starnes (D-Ala.) would go to New York for a preliminary examination of material gathered for the new phase of the inquiry. The hearings will be held in the west and Midwest.

The Starnes group will begin hearings in about a week, and expects to complete its work seven or eight days later. Representatives Dempsey (D-NM), Healey (D-Mass) and Thines (R-NJ) will accompany Starnes.

AFFIDAVIT

STATE OF TEXAS:
NAVARRO COUNTY:

Before me, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared Joe Sheppard, who, after being duly sworn, on his oath deposes and says:

That he is president of the Kerens Progress Club, a civic body acting in the capacity of a chamber of commerce. That JAMES E. TAYLOR, as representative of Kerens, prepared the data, sponsored the application and was primarily responsible for securing a grant of $44,000 in federal funds for widening, grading and graveling the Kerens-Highway 22 cut-off-road, which was accepted by the State Highway Department after the above project was completed.

Joe Sheppard
Sworn to and subscribed before me this 22nd day of August, 1938.

AFFIDAVIT

STATE OF TEXAS:
NAVARRO COUNTY:

Before me the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared J. W. (Bill) Johnson, who, after being duly sworn, on his oath deposes and says:

That he was a candidate for the office of Representative from the 88th District, Navarro county, in the first democratic primary. That he publicly indorsed the candidacy of James E. (Jim) Taylor of Kerens, following his defeat in the above primary. That the said James E. Taylor neither paid, offered or promised to pay anything for said public indorsement, nor did he promise any reward of any kind.

J. W. (Bill) Johnson
Sworn to and subscribed before me this 22nd day of August, 1938.

Beauty Diary

of Edna Kent Forbes
FOOT COMFORT.

Miss Forbes gives you advice on building up your health and nervous energy through making your feet more comfortable.

There is no exaggeration in the statement that a large percent of the ill humor in the world is due to uncomfortable feet.

The snapped, or disintegrated, or pained, or without any apparent reason, may often be attributed to swollen feet, that should be relieved, and a fresh pair of shoes take the place of those being worn at the time. There are persons whose feet are so sensitive, they change shoes, and possibly stockings too, whenever they begin to feel their nerves are on edge, or whenever they feel unaccountably tired.

Such feet need shoes of different sizes, larger ones some days than others, or with different degrees of temperature. Most persons need to change shoes as soon as they get into the house, after walking about for hours on city pavements. The feet then will need larger, or softer shoes, and when this is done, it is almost as if a miracle had been wrought, with all the wear and tear of the past hours, leaving the nervous system immediately.

The finest things that have happened for the feet during the warm months are the many cuts of shoes made from materials other than leather; and the strap shoe, and also its companion, the strapped sandal—all of these ventilative, easy on the feet, and light in weight as well as in color. The latter is important too, for light colors do not absorb the heat like dark ones do. These easy summer shoes may be very smart and fallow too, some of very soft kid are dressy, and even these are soft and comfortable on the feet. Those who wear these shoes have found that foot muscles have developed, and with this improvement fallen arches have gained support.

Mrs. G. K.—Instead of going on a liquid diet to lose weight, cut out the worst of the starches, sugar, and fats. This eliminates all refined white flour foods, all pastries, all sodas, and other fancy soda water counter mixtures. Also all confectionery, especially the rich chocolate bonbons. Go in heavily for fresh vegetables and fruit, and watch your skin clear and your weight get back to normal. You will also feel much better in health.

Mrs. V.—The caloric value of a slice of watermelon is so slight as to be not worth mentioning, and you could consume a whole melon and this would still be true. It is mostly water, but its value is very great, for it is mostly sodium, therefore one of the finest cleansers of any food one may take. It literally flushes the whole system and counteracts acids and other toxic accumulations. Some persons go on a watermelon diet for ten days each summer, just to renew health and build up fresh energy.

Mrs. G.—Witch hazel is an effective astringent, and a few drops of tincture of benzoin in a pint of water is still another one, that may be arranged at home at no cost at all. Cold water to close pores every time the pores are relaxed through bathing with warm water, or after a massage. An ice rub acts as an astringent also.

If you have any beauty problems you cannot solve, write for Edna Kent Forbes, 1210 W. Beauty, booklet: (1) "Fifteen Minutes a Day for Beauty," (2) "The Five Points of Beauty," (3) "Eating and Bathing for Beauty." Send ten cents (in stamps) for EACH booklet, to Mrs. E. K. Forbes, care of this paper, and receive a stamped, self-addressed, envelope (S. A. S. E.). Address Edna Kent Forbes, 1210 W. Beauty.
